ORDER:-

The Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad, has reported to Government that Sri M.Narsaiah, Warden, BC Boys Hostel, Kodigenahalli, Anantapur District has created forgery bills, and also inflated the amounts in genuine bills and caused wrongful loss to the Government exchequer vide reference 1st read above.

2. Government after careful consideration of the reports and rules in force, have accorded sanction for prosecution of the Accused Officer Sri M.Narsaiah Warden, vide reference 2nd read above to the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad.

3. The Hon'ble 1st Additional Special Judge for SPE & ACB Cases, Hyderabad, has concluded the prosecution proceedings in C.C.No.5 of 2004, dt: 28.10.2010. The Hon'ble Judge has observed that Sri M.Narsaiah, Warden, disbursed an amount of Rs.12,060/- to three different persons for supply of fans, electrical goods, towards cost of hand bore material, repairing charges and construction of water sump. The Accused Officer disbursed an amount of Rs.12,060/- to Sri S.Padmaraju and Sri S.N.Govinda Raddy and another. Sri S.Padmaraju deposited that he had supplied 6 fans, electrical goods, and received the amount and signed on acquittances register, acknowledging the receiving of the amount. Sri S.N.Govinda Reddy has deposed that he constructed a sump in the Hostel at the cost of Rs.3,060/- and the same was received by him under acquittances register. It is also in the evidence of Sri S.Padmaraju that another person Nagaraju, the material supplier is no more to whom according to Accused Officer paid an amount of Rs.2,900/-.

Regarding the bill for Rs.12,060/- the Hon'ble 1st Additional Special Judge for SPE & ACB cases, Hyderabad, has observed that passing the bill without BCR was highly irregular and thus it is considered as forged. However, the evidence shows that the relevant bill was signed by the District Social Officer. In fact, it was the duty of the drawing officer to verify the availability of the budget before signing on the bill. After that it was the duty of Sub Treasury Officer concern to verify the availability of budget under the said head of account before passing the bill. The fact that the Accused Officer had not entered the amount in the cash book, is considered as irregular, but that irregularity it-self is not sufficient to say that Accused Officer had misappropriated the amount of Rs.12,060/- and this irregularity on part of Accused Officer in discharging his official duties does not attract the penal provision and at best it attracts the departmental action.

The Hon'ble 1st Additional special Judge for SPE & ACB Cases, Hyderabad has further observed that the acquaintance register which marked in by the Accused Officer was seized by the concerned investigating officer before registering the report. FIR in this case was registered against Accused Officer on 26.03.1999. Therefore, there was no chance for Accused Officer to create entry in the acquittances register which was already in the custody of investigating officer.
